Abstract

This report is a documented account of the Flight Operations Segment (FOS) Release A Acceptance Data Package during the period November 6, 1996 through November 27, 1996.

This report includes:

- a. Reference to the FOS Release A Physical Configuration Audit and Functional Configuration Audit, which is included in Data Item Description (DID) #506.
- b. Reference to the FOS Release A Acceptance Test Results, which is included in DID #412.
- c. Reference to the FOS Release A Acceptance Test Logs -- i.e., the location where these test logs are physically located.
- d. A summary of the open Action Items from the FOS Release A Functional Configuration Audit (FCA)/Physical Configuration Audit (PCA).
- e. Reference to FOS Non-Conformance Reports (NCRs), which are included in the Distributed Defect Tracking System (DDTS).
- f. A list of the operating manuals that are located at the EOS Operations Center (EOC).

Keywords: Configuration Audits, PCA, FCA, Acceptance Test Logs, action items, and operating manuals.

Abbreviations and Acronyms

1. Introduction

1.1 Identification

This document is the FOS Release A Acceptance Data Package for the ECS Project, which is item 108 on the Contract Data Requirements List (CDRL) and defined by Data Item Description (DID) 535/PA1 under contract NAS5-60000.

1.2 Scope

This document defines the FOS Acceptance Test data package for Release A.

This document reflects the February 7, 1996, Technical Baseline maintained by the Contractor Configuration Board in accordance with ECS Technical Direction No. 11, dated December 6, 1994.

1.3 Purpose

This document describes the information which makes up the FOS Release A Acceptance Test data package. Its purpose is to provide high level information regarding the acceptance testing effort to specifically and comprehensively identify the acceptance test data, and to specify the location of the data produced during acceptance testing.

1.4 Status and Schedule

The submittal of DID 535/PA1 meets the milestone specified in the CDRL of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) contract NAS5-60000.

1.5 Organization

Section 1 provides the identification, scope, purpose, status and schedule, and document organization.

Section 2 provides a list of documents, that were used directly or indirectly in the preparation of this document.

Section 3 defines the FOS Release A Acceptance Test data package. It includes identification of the Functional Configuration Audit (FCA) and Physical Configuration Audit (PCA) results, their location, and specific document numbers, as applicable; identification of system Acceptance Test data, their location, and specific document numbers; identification of open action items, reasons they are still open, and authorization to accept these items; identification of operating manuals and verification that they have been provided; and identification of additional deliverable data.

Appendix A contains the list of Release A vendor documentation that resides at the EOC.

The section Abbreviations and Acronyms contains an alphabetized list of the definitions for abbreviations and acronyms used in this volume.

3. Acceptance Data

3.1 Audit Records

3.1.1 Physical Configuration Audit

The Flight Operations Segment (FOS) Physical Configuration Audit (PCA) was held at the EOS Operations Center (EOC) on November 14, 1996 and concluded on November 22, 1996. Prior to this audit a ‘kickoff’ meeting was held at the Hughes Information Technology Systems (HITS) office on November 6, 1996 at which all team members met and stated their audit requirements.

The PCA examined the ‘as-built’ ECS FOS configuration, as viewed at the EOC, to ensure that it conformed to the Release A design documentation, as described by the FOS product baseline. The FOS product baseline consisted of:

- a. FOS Release A Version Description Document (VDD) -- 814-RD-007-003
- b. FOS COTS Hardware Configuration White Paper -- 320-WP-001-002
- c. Floor plans provided by the ECS Maintenance and Operations office were used to identify equipment in the EOC.

Attendees of the FOS PCA included the Earth Science Data and Information System (ESDIS) Quality Office, NASA FOS Team, the ECS Configuration Management Office and Quality Office, and the ECS FOS Team.

The results of the FOS PCA are documented in the Configuration Audits for Flight Operations Segment (FOS) Release A for the ECS Project, 506-CD-002-001. In summary, the results of the PCA held on November 14, 1996 included the identification of a set of 38 Non-Conformance Reports (NCRs). After an intensive period of revision, FOS and CMO team members informed the audit team that the NCRs had been addressed and requested that the PCA be re-opened. This occurred on November 22, 1996. ‘Red-lined’ documents were presented to the audit team and discussed with the audit team. This review concluded with the signing of the PCA certificate by all audit team members.

3.1.2 Functional Configuration Audit

The Fight Operation Segment (FOS) Functional Configuration Audit (FCA) was held at the HITS offices in Upper Marlboro, MD on November 25, 1996. It was preceded by a ‘kickoff’ meeting on November 21, 1996 at the EOS Operations Center (EOC).

The FCA examined the Acceptance Test Results, Test Procedures, and Test Status information. It also reviewed the NCRs by Severity, by Test by Severity, and by Subsystem by Severity. Additional information for review at the FCA included the requirements status, Requirements by Release (RBR) requirements lists, Level 4 requirements lists, and mapping of requirements to test cases.

Attendees of the FOS FCA included the ESDIS Quality Office, NASA FOS Team, the ECS Configuration Management Office and Quality Office, and the ECS FOS Team.

The results of the FOS FCA are documented in the Configuration Audits for Flight Operations Segment (FOS) Release A for the ECS Project, 506-CD-002-001. In summary, the results of the FCA held on November 25, 1996 included the identification of six action items. Four of the items were closed at the FOS Release Readiness Review (RRR). The fifth action item pertains to an investigation into updating the NCR home page content, and the sixth action item pertains to updating the mapping of requirement F-FUI-09120 to test case ANA-2000A (note: this last action item is awaiting the new Requirements and Traceability Management (RTM) update cycle).

This review concluded with the signing of the FCA certificate by all audit team members.

3.2 System Acceptance Test Data

3.2.1 System Acceptance Test Results

The Flight Operations Segment Release A System Acceptance Test was held between November 11, 1996 and November 26, 1996 at the EOC. This test phase culminated in the FOS Release A Release Readiness Review, which was held at the HITS Upper Marlboro, MD facility on November 27, 1996. The key participants of the FOS Release A System Acceptance Test were the ECS FOS Test Team, ECS Quality Office, and the NASA/FOS Test Team. The ESDIS Independent Verification and Validation (IV&V) team also viewed the acceptance tests. The results of the FOS Release A System Acceptance Test are documented in the ECS System Acceptance Test Report for Release A, Volume 3: Earth Observing System (EOS) Operations Center (EOC), 412-CD-003-002.

3.2.2 System Acceptance Test Logs

The system test logs consist of the following information for each test conducted during FOS Release A Acceptance Testing: test case number and title; test conduct summary; date of test; pass/fail assessment; test procedure deviations; NCRs written; NCRs verified; test iteration identification. These test logs are current as of 27 November 1996 and maintained by ECS Configuration Management.

3.3 Open Action Items

All action items from the FOS PCA have been closed.

Two action items remain open from the FOS FCA. The first one pertains to an investigation into updating the NCR home page content. This action item does not pertain directly to the FOS Release A system. It is currently being worked by the ECS System Management Office in conjunction with the ESDIS Quality Office. The second remaining open action item from the FOS FCA pertains to updating the mapping of requirement F-FUI-09120 to test case ANA-2000A. This action item is awaiting the new RTM update cycle, and will be closed at that time.

All action items from the FOS Release A Release Readiness Review have been closed.

FOS has identified a set of NCRs in the FOS Release A system that will be corrected after the FOS Release A Release Readiness Review. The planned correction of these NCRs has been coordinated with the ESDIS Integration and Test (I&T) personnel as well as the Flight Operations Team. To ensure that this set of NCRs is uniquely tracked, they are included in the NCR Distributed Defect Tracking System (DDTS) project “From_A” in the FOS_Rel_B class.

3.4 Operating Manuals

The set of operating manuals for the EOC equipment has been provided to the EOC. The set of vendor manuals presently resides on books shelves in the EOC equipment room, and is listed in Appendix A. The Flight Operations Segment (FOS) Operations Tools Manual, 609-CD-005-001, describes how to use the functional capabilities provided for FOS Release A. The FOS Operations Tools Manual is planned to be updated with the Release B delivery of the FOS software.

3.5 Additional Deliverable Data
